POLITICAL.—Meeting postponed.—A full meeting of the Executive Committee of the Central Hancock and English Club was held last evening at the office of Mr. B. Harlow, Esq. Upon its being called to the committee that two of the gentlemen invited to address the people of Alexandria on the night of the 20th were out of the State, and had not yet been heard from, and that it was impossible at so late an hour to supply their places, it was determined to postpone the proposed torchlight procession and raifification meeting until Thursday night, August 12. The committee then determined to hold their first meeting at the 2nd ward platform, which is to be erected beneath the flag pole, near the Cotton Factory, and which has been kindly tendered to them. It was also understood that meetings would be held in each ward during the campaign. Much of the postponement is to be regretted, it became necessary, as it is desired that the first meeting in Alexandria shall be one which will do honor to our homes and credit to the city. The secretary wishes to direct the majority of the gentlemen invited to speak of the postponement and request their attendance on the 12th.

Second Ward Democratic Club.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Second ward democratic Hancock and English club was held at the Sun engine house last night. K. Kemper, Esq., president, in the chair, and Leonard Marbury, secretary. One hundred and fifty names were enrolled and the following gentlemen appointed by the club as the executive committee: S. L. Monroe, M. B. Harlow, Frank Pines, Geo. W. Fisher, A. J. Harper, Henry Strauss, L. H. Kell, George S. Smith, F. E. Marbury, J. M. Kell and George Dirley. An invitation from the central democratic club inviting the Second ward club to participate in the raifification meeting to be held on the 12th of August next was accepted, and a committee appointed to make the necessary arrangements.

A motion to the effect that each member of the club supply himself with a Hancock and English badge, backed with blue ribbon was carried, and R. M. Latham on hand to furnish the same.

The meeting then adjourned.

INQUIRY FROM AN ORPHAN GIRL.—The following, addressed by Mary E. May, of Culpeper, by an orphan girl of this city, is published in the Culpeper Times.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., July 2, 1880.
 Dear Sir: You will please excuse my writing to you. This reason I write to you is I do not know who else to write to, and as I would like to know if there is any one living in your place, by the name of Hewell which is the name of my father who lived in Culpeper and fell in the war, and my mother put me in the orphan asylum in this city, when I was an infant. I think she was a day or two in Washington on the 23rd of June from Culpeper, Va., where she lived with her mother, but she has since gone to Boston. The priestess were told in the sum of $2,000 for their services before the grand jury, and the outraged girl was held in custody to testify. She will have the witness rooms at the Washington jail and will draw $1 a day until the 31st of September or longer.

THE WASHINGTON OUTRAGE.—The trial of the five Washington roughs who so brutally assaulted the girl Mary Trout, from Virginia, in the grounds of the Smithsonian Institution on the night of Sunday, June 23rd, was continued yesterday in the Police Court of this city. The girl, who is said to be an innocent country lass, seemed to be almost indifferent to the great wrongs she had suffered upon her.

Her testimony before the court she owned that her name was Trout, and that she was a daughter of Maryland, that she lived in Washington on the 23rd of June from Culpeper, Va., where she lived with her mother, but she has since gone to Boston. The priestess were told in the sum of $2,000 for their services before the grand jury, and the outraged girl was held in custody to testify. She will have the witness rooms at the Washington jail and will draw $1 a day until the 31st of September or longer.

TEMPERANCE.—A meeting of the Alexandria Reform Club was held last night, with L. B. Harrison in the chair and H. H. Folz secretary.

Under the head of "For the Good of the Club," Prof. Evans and others made interesting addresses.

The club then adjourned and proceeded to the Gospel Tent, in the Postoffice yard, where a large temperance meeting was in progress, presided over by Mr. Townsend. At the conclusion of Mr. Townsend's address, Professor Evans made some remarks, and a number of persons signed the pledge.

THE DEATH OF MR. MARKELL.—The death of young Markell is still the subject of conversation with the people of his native city, and the most generally received theory as to how the fatal accident occurred, is that whatever may have been the cause, the shooting was purely accidental. Mr. H. H. Smith, who was an eye witness of the shooting, says: "He honestly believes that the shooting, when it occurred, was purely accidental, no matter what his declarations were on his utterance. Intentions may have been. He says Markell came down the stairs very hurriedly, his body awkwardly and to find, brandishing his pistol around his head in a very excited manner. All his motions were rapid, and when he put the pistol to his breast he did not seem to notice what he was doing, but in his excitement, and when the pistol was discharged, rushed at once to him with cries to save him. None of his actions showed a formed intention to do or say anything. He seemed to act altogether without motive, and as several on laboring under some aberration of mind."

Several years ago Mr. Markell had a severe sunstroke, since which time he has been very nervous and excitable, and whenever anything occurred to irritate him he would fly into a violent passion, though this would always soon blow over. It is thought that in this case something must have happened to throw him into this state, and for the time he lost all control of his reason and pointed the pistol at his heart in the course of his wild gesticulations without any consciousness of the fact on his part.

THIRTY DOLLARS TO-DAY.—The Mayor dispensed of the following cases at police headquarters to-day:

Four persons, for keeping dogs without a license were fined $5 each. One of the parties positively refused to pay the fine, and was ordered to be locked up. It was not long, however, before he came to terms, paid his five dollars and was discharged.

An old and well-known river pilot for having a little pilification all to himself, was fined $5, and discharged.

Chas. Hall, colored, for disorderly conduct on the streets, was fined $5, and discharged.

SERIOUSLY INJURED WHILE BLASTING ROCK.—A colored man of this city, named Joseph Ford, was seriously injured Tuesday evening last, while engaged in blasting rock, near Front Royal. A large piece of an exploded boiler struck him on the left side of the head, cutting it severely and mashing in a portion of the face. He was brought here yesterday on the Virginia Midland Midland train and carried to his home on Penitentiary street, between Pitt and St. Asaph, where he has been lying in an unconscious condition ever since. Drs. Stabler and Howell are the attending physicians.

NEW STEAMBOAT.—A new steamboat for the Potomac Steamboat Company, was launched in Wilmington, Del., to-day. The new vessel is to be called the Keesler. It is said she will be larger than the George Lary, and is built for speed and comfort. She is expected to arrive in Washington about the middle of August, when it is the intention of the company to put her on the line between that city and Norfolk as a mate to the Lary.

ANOTHER DISPATCH.
 WINCHESTER, Va., July 21.—The convention to select delegates to the Alexandria convention met, the convass between E. P. Dandridge and Major H. Conrad being close and exciting. Finding that he would equally divide the delegation, but endanger the harmony of the party because of the heated contest, Mr. Dandridge withdrew from the candidacy in a stirring speech, which was welcomed with the wildest enthusiasm. Delegates were then selected, many of whom were the original supporters of Dandridge. The delegates were instructed to urge the nomination of Major Conrad so long as his name was before the convention. Major Conrad appeared before the convention and was received with deafening applause. He made an eloquent speech, referring in feeling terms to the action of the convention, the magnanimous conduct of Mr. Dandridge and the prospect of success of the party. W. C. R.
